Numb. 6915.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 5. to Tuesday September 8. 1730.

Seville, Auguſt 25.

THEIR Catholick Majeſties ſet out from Cazalla on the 20th Inſtant, and arrived at this City on the 23d at Night, where they intend to ſtop a few Days before they proceed to Port St. Mary's. On the 19th Inſtant the Court received Advice by an Expreſs from Cadiz, of the Arrival of the Flota in that Bay; computed to be worth Eighteen Millions, Twelve in Money and Six in Goods.

Vienna, Aug. 30, N. S. We have received Advice from Conſtantinople, that the Grand Signior was marched from thence to take the Field in Perſon; but that it was ſuppoſed he would ſtop at Aleppo, while his Forces endeavoured to recover the Fort of Tauris: That he had drawn Thirty Six Millions of Piaſtres out of his Coffers to carry on the War againſt Perſia; and that the Ceremony of his March out of Conſtantinople laſted from Eight in the Morning till Nine at Night.

Hague, Sept. 12, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland meet to Morrow, the greateſt Part of the Members being already come hither. The Grand Penſionary deſigns to aſſiſt at the Aſſembly. The Directors of the Eaſt India Company having been ſummoned to attend, arrived here two Days ago, and had Yeſterday and this Day a Conference with the Deputies of the States concerning the two Eaſt India Ships taken and releaſed by the Algerines. The Elector of Cologn and the Prince his Brother ſet out from hence on Saturday laſt for Amſterdam, in their Return to Munſter. We have this Day received Advice, that the King of Sardinia has reſigned his Government in Favour of the Prince of Piedmont his Son. We hear that the Prince of Orange, who has been for ſome Time at Aix la Chapelle for the Benefit of the Waters, has been indiſpoſed with a Fever, but that he is ſo well recovered, that his Highneſs deſigned to return very ſoon from thence.

Windſor Caſtle, Sept. 6, 1730.

The Letter ſigned Publicus, and directed to a Noble Peer, has been received.

Windſor-Caſtle, Auguſt 10, 1730.

Whereas two Letters, one ſubſcribed Jon. H. and Tho. J. dated the 5th Inſtant, and the other ſubſcribed Jon. Reſolute, dated the 7th, have been received, by the Penny-Poſt, by Nathaniel Gould, Eſq; one of the Directors of the Bank of England, directed to him at his Houſe in Crosby-Square in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, requiring him to come alone to Conſtitution-Hill and leave Ten Guineas in a Purſe under three Bricks which he ſhould find together, within three Yards of the Corner of the Wall of her Grace the Dutcheſs of Buckingham's Garden, and threatning, in Caſe of Refuſal, or of endeavouring to betray the Perſon that ſhould come to ſee if the Money were there, purſuant to their Demand that he the ſaid Nathaniel Gould ſhould not long ſurvive. His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in ſending the ſaid Letters, or either of them, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, the ſaid Nathaniel Gould does hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons who ſent, or contrived or directed the ſending of the ſaid Letters, or either of them, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall, upon ſuch Conviction, receive as a Reward, the Sum of Fifty Pounds of him the ſaid Nathaniel Gould.

Nat. Gould.

General Poſt-Office, Auguſt 31, 1730.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy bringing the Briſtol Mail to London, was ſet upon and Robbed by a ſingle Perſon on Foot, about Nine o'Clock laſt Night, half a Mile before he came to Maidenhead; The Poſt-Maſter General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever ſhall apprehend the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will, upon his Conviction be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any one Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery ſhall make a Diſcovery of the Perſon who committed the Fact, ſuch Accomplice will be entitled to the ſaid Reward of Two hundred Pounds, and alſo have the King's moſt Gracious Pardon. The Perſon who committed this Robbery, is deſcribed to be a luſty Man; he carried off the following Bags, viz. Briſtol, Bath, Bruton, Tinehead, Froom, Calne, Marlborough, Ramsbury, Newbury, Reading, Hungerford, Great-Bedwin, Uphaven, Netherhaven, Aimsbury, Lavington, Weſtbury, Trowbridge, Bradford, Warminſter, Shipton Mallet, Puſey, Wells.
